NOT ON OUR RAILWAY
#RailAgainstAbuse

It's not banter.
It's not harmless.
It's harassment.

What is harassment?

- Harassment is verbal, including catcalling, comments about appearance and comments that target someone.
- Harassment is physical. It's never okay to touch someone without their consent.
- Harassment is intimidation. Staring, following, and invading personal space are all types of intimidation.
- Harassment is discrimination against someone, or targeting them based on gender, race, sexuality, or disability.

Harassment is not "just banter"

Unwanted jokes or comments humiliate and isolate people. What's funny to one person can be frightening to another.

Harassment is about power

When attention is uninvited, unwanted, and one-sided, it's not a compliment, it's intimidation.

We can ALL help to keep rail safe.
